[William E. Colby]

Martinez, Jan. 28, '05.

Dear Mr. Colby:

That clipping from the "Post" is a capital take-off on those fluffy, frothy, empty, bellowing speeches we heard the other day. It is useful, too, and has a good hard sting in it. Please sent me three or four more copies.

Faithfully yours,

[John Muir]

Dear Mr. Colby:

I see by to-day's Chronicle that the bill is to come up in the Assembly next Wednesday. When will you start for Sacramento?

Keith's little article reads pretty well, and does him great credit.

Faithfully yours,

[John Muir]
